Tomatoes > Red Tomatoes on the Vine

Good flavor comes in small packages with Red Sun Farm's on-the-vine tomatoes.

Perfect as a wholesome, colourful addition to any salad or entrée, our greenhouse grown tomatoes deliver taste that only vine ripening can bring. Choose from red, orange or yellow varieties, all featuring lower acidity and milder flavor.

Tomatoes > Heritage Tomatoes

Heritage Beefs have a very rustic appearance and robust tomato flavor profile reminiscent of what you'd find at local, open air, farmers' markets during the peak of season.

Great tasting tomatoes. Try these sliced on a BLT, stuffed, or use as a great topper for burgers.

Tomatoes > Cocoa Tomatoes

This succulent tomato variety originated in Western Europe and is popular in France, Belgium, Switzerland, Germany, and the Mediterranean.

The taste profile of the Cocoa leans more towards savory, earthy, or broth-like flavoring. You will notice the color of the Cocoa evolves from green to brown and can be enjoyed at any stage in the ripening process - you decide which stage you like best! The greener fruit will possess a stronger, more robust flavor. Waiting for the fruit to ripen to full brown will result in a "sweeter" eating experience to offset pairings that are more acidic.
